Subject: ethics

1. I would like to review all ethics forms at the Township including but not limited to either former and/or current employees, consultants, and/or elected public officials for the last 15 years.

Supervisor Bustard's unilateral decision to post the names of individuals who make RTK requests on the Township's website has been used as a political tool to harass and discourage those who want to use the RTK process and to have free unfettered access to information.

I would like my identity to be kept anonymous to avoid being harassed by certain individuals in the Township. Fortunately, the RTK law makes a provision for anonymous requests.
