

How-to Gardening Talks 2020

Get ready for this upcoming outdoor gardening season. We are pleased to offer a Spring-time series of practical garden talks, "Discover Beautiful Flowers for Your Home Outdoor Garden", on popular topics to help you with your gardening. Thom Mrazik, a Worcester resident and Penn State Extension Master Gardener, will be giving these presentations.

May 18th

The Beloved, Majestic Peony

June 1st

Flowering Shrubs with Multiple Ornamental Interests

June 8th

The Best Flowers to Make Your Garden Pollinator-Friendly

All talks are free and held at Worcester Community Hall (1031 Valley Forge Road).

Preregistration is required! Please email Steven Heintz, Recreation Coordinator at sheintz@worcestertwp.com to register.